We invite you to become part of a supportive community of dynamic and dedicated faculty focused on being national leaders in Physician Assistant studies. Our well-established and nationally respected program offers an entry-level Master of Science degree in Physician Assistant Studies and enrolls 56 students annually on two campuses in Morehead and Lexington, KY. The program is accredited by the ARC-PA. Please explore what our department has to offer by visiting the Department of Physician Assistant Studies website, <https://www.uky.edu/chs/physician-assistant-studies>.

The primary responsibilities for the individual in the position are to provide didactic, clinical and laboratory instruction as well as advising to students in the Master's in Physician Assistant Studies program. The faculty member would have the opportunity to be assigned direct patient care services at UK HealthCare, pro bono or other practice settings as arranged and approved by the Chair. The specific teaching assignment will be based on program needs, and the clinical assignment distribution of effort is flexible based on program needs and skills and qualifications of selected candidate. The anticipated effort for this position is Instruction 50-80%, Service (including clinical work) 5-40%, Research/Scholarship 1-10%, Professional Development 2-5% and will be negotiated with the Chair annually.

Required Qualifications:

- Graduation from an accredited Physician Assistant Studies program with a Master's degree in PA studies
- Current national certification as a Physician Assistant and eligibility to practice in the Commonwealth of Kentucky
- Commitment to the mission of the Department of Physician Assistant Studies
- Preferred Qualifications:
 - Minimum of three years clinical experience
 - Potential for excellence in teaching and clinical service

Applicants must value the University of Kentucky's mission and share its commitment to inclusive excellence, the education of the whole person, and the building of a just society. The University of Kentucky and the College of Health Sciences are committed to maintaining a diverse and inclusive workforce by ensuring all students, faculty, and staff operate in an environment of openness and acceptance. By providing training, support, resources and mentoring, we strive to foster a community in which individuals of all backgrounds, identities, and perspectives can feel secure and welcome. In your letter of interest, please describe the ways in which your past and current teaching, scholarship, mentorship, and/or community service have supported these values.

Candidates should apply online with a curriculum vita and letter of interest on the employment website.
