Job Description

Two Clinical Pathology positions available.

The successful candidate will be expected to participate in the clinical pathology service, the training and supervision of clinical pathology residents and graduate students, and the clinical training of veterinary students. Auburn University maintains the tradition of training practice ready veterinarians and clinical pathologists. Auburn is collectively dedicated to residency training in clinical pathology through communal interactions between faculty and residents with focused resident rounds.

Didactic teaching responsibilities include participation in the professional veterinary medical curriculum and graduate curriculum. Pedagogy and scholarly activity will be synergistic with the College's research, teaching and clinical service missions.
