About the College of Medicine and Health Sciences

The College of Medicine and Health Sciences is the first medical school in the country (www.cmhs.uaeu.ac.ae). Its mission is to produce Emirati doctors educated to the highest international standards. Faculty members are drawn from all over the world and are known for their research and for their expertise in medical education.

The College is co-located with Tawam Hospital, a large acute-care comprehensive hospital affiliated with Johns Hopkins Medicine.

About the United Arab Emirates University

Established in 1977, and located in the oasis city of Al Ain, UAE University is one of the leading comprehensive universities in the region, with significant research output and a strong community engagement mission. More than 13,000 students are enrolled in the University's nine colleges and are supported by 600 PhD faculty members and 320 instructors (with Master's Degrees). The University offers a broad array of undergraduate and graduate Degree Programs.

Living in Al Ain, Abu Dhabi

A one and a half hour drive from Abu Dhabi city, Al Ain is one of the world's oldest permanently inhabited settlements, and a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Al Ain is fed by natural springs and set among oases and plantations, garnering it the nickname 'Garden City'. It is the largest inland city in the United Arab Emirates, the fourth-largest overall (after Dubai, Abu Dhabi, and Sharjah), and the second-largest in the Emirate of Abu Dhabi.

The UAE has a very significant expat community, making up almost 90% of the total population with English widely spoken. The combination of international influences and a strong commitment to local heritage has created an intriguing mix of new and old. A more liberal country, foreigners are free to practice their own religion and dress code.
