Job Description

The Department of Pediatrics, University at Buffalo (UB), Jacobs School of Medicine and Biomedical Sciences, and Oishei Children's Hospital of Buffalo (OCH) is actively recruiting candidates for the position of Division Chief of General Pediatrics. This faculty position will provide dynamic leadership to the physicians and staff focusing on building a comprehensive care model that provides outcome-based and population-based proactive care for all children throughout the community. The Division has 16 Pediatricians and 4 Nurse Practitioners who staff two urban-based primary care clinics, several school-based health clinics, and the newborn nursery at Oishei Children's Hospital and Millard Fillmore Suburban hospital. The division provides much of the core training for the pediatric residency program and the medical student pediatric clerkships, seeing over 23,000 patient visits annually combined between the ambulatory clinics and the nurseries. The Chief participates in direct patient care and teaching residents, playing a key role in determining the best model for inpatient and outpatient

About the Buffalo/Niagara region

Buffalo is the second-largest city in New York State and is located in the western region on the shores of Lake Erie, upriver of the majestic Niagara Falls. Buffalo - the City of Good Neighbors - is a big city with a rapidly growing economy, vital academic health sciences center, outstanding public schools, and modest cost of living. Buffalo-Niagara, a region of 1.2 million people, is home to world-class art galleries and museums, a comprehensive city-wide system of parks and green space designed by renowned landscape architect Frederick Law Olmsted, a vibrant theater and music community, an abundance of restaurants for every palette, and major and minor league sports teams. Buffalo is home to iconic historical landmarks, diverse attractions, and hosts many annual cultural events. Buffalo is close to two significant wine growing regions-Niagara Escarpment and the Finger Lakes region. In addition, the Adirondack Mountains are half-a-day's drive from Buffalo. Rich in natural resources and beauty, the Buffalo Niagara area is a four-season region that offers the best for seasonal sports enthusiasts. Due to its mild temperatures, low risk of natural disasters, abundant fresh water, and clean energy production, Buffalo is a great place to work, study and live - going from "Punchline to Lifeline".
