Job Description

The University of Kentucky is seeking an open-rank faculty member in Internal Medicine that will act as an attending physician for Endocrinology, Diabetes and Metabolism Division. This position will be located at The Barnstable Brown Diabetes Center, a 20,000-square-foot clinic space at the UK HealthCare - Turfland location in Lexington, Kentucky. In addition to being home to the Barnstable Brown Diabetes Center, UK HealthCare - Turfland houses a variety of services that are important to the management and treatment of diabetes and related conditions, including a pharmacy, a laboratory, radiology services, including ultrasound, and ophthalmology and optometry services. Having so many capabilities under one roof allows our team of experts to care for patients ranging from infants to seniors in a seamless, coordinated fashion.

Duties include:

- Provide clinical care for patients while supervising residents in ambulatory and hospital-based settings.
- Participate in clinical teaching activities within the Division, as negotiated between the Division Chief and the individual faculty member. This position will also be the Fellowship Program Director. Must have three years teaching/academic experience in an ACGME Endocrinology program. Must be Board Certified in Endocrinology. The Program Director will have 20% protected time to oversee and develop the Fellowship program. These activities may include instruction of students, residents and fellows in ambulatory and inpatient clinical settings, as well as instruction in lectures, seminars and clinical conferences.
- Support the clinical research mission of the Division through various roles including development and supervision of clinical protocols, accrual of patients to clinical trials, and participation in regulatory oversight programs for clinical research.
- Represent the University of Kentucky in a professional manner as an active member of the medical staff. These responsibilities include active participation in medical staff affairs; adherence to evidence based practice standards; and a strong commitment to high standards of customer service.
- Serve on appropriate Division, Department, University, Hospital and College committees as assigned by the Division Chief.

Please include Curriculum Vita along with application. Applications will be reviewed immediately and continue until the position is filled.
